LOCAL LAW FIRM NAMES NEW PARTNER

COLUMBUS, Ohio – The Columbus law firm of Wiles, Boyle, Burkholder & Bringardner Co., L.P.A. has named Kerry T. Boyle as a new partner.

“We are pleased to elect such a high caliber attorney as Kerry Boyle to our partnership,” said Michael L. Close, managing partner, Wiles, Boyle, Burkholder & Bringardner. “Since joining the firm, Kerry has added significant expertise to our capabilities in real estate and construction law, and he also has played an integral role in leading internal initiatives, such as the law clerk recruiting for the law firm.”

Boyle’s practice areas include real estate, real estate litigation, construction law, construction litigation, retail and commercial leasing, and restaurant and hospitality. Currently, Boyle assists with representation of the Village of Minerva Park and the Village of Obetz. Recently, he was recognized by Ohio Super Lawyer’s as a Rising Star for 2009.

A Capital University Law School graduate, Boyle was admitted to the Ohio bar in 2000. He received a bachelor of science from Ohio University, cum laude, in 1995. Boyle currently is active in numerous professional organizations, including the Columbus, Ohio State and American Bar Associations; the Ohio and Central Ohio Restaurant Associations; the National Retail Tenant’s Association; and the Building Industry Association of Central Ohio.

Established in 1940, Wiles, Boyle, Burkholder & Bringardner Co., L.P.A. is a full-service, Columbus law firm serving both individuals and a variety of corporate clients. The firm’s practice areas include litigation and appeals, business and corporate law, estate planning and probate, real estate, insurance defense, bankruptcy/foreclosure, construction and debtor-creditor law.
