MUNICIPAL LAW PRACTICE EXPANDS AT WILES, BOYLE, BURKHOLDER & BRINGARDNER

COLUMBUS, Ohio – Brian M. Zets has joined Wiles, Boyle, Burkholder & Bringardner Co., L.P.A as an associate practicing in Municipal Law and Litigation.

Zets will provide counsel in areas such as land use, zoning, alleged police misconduct and contracts. He has tried more than a dozen jury trials to verdict, and presented oral arguments before the Sixth Circuit and Tenth District courts of Appeals, as well as, the Ohio Supreme Court.

“Brian has significant experience representing municipalities, government entities, and school districts in a wide range of legal matters,” said James M. Wiles, managing partner, Wiles, Boyle, Burkholder & Bringardner. “We continue to expand our municipal practice areas and his expertise is a great addition to our team.”

Zets was admitted to the Ohio Bar in 1996 after earning his law degree from The University of Toledo College of Law. He currently serves as Vice Chair and Legal Advisor on the New Albany Chamber of Commerce Board of Trustees.

Established in 1940, Wiles, Boyle, Burkholder & Bringardner Co., L.P.A. is a full-service, Columbus law firm serving both individuals and a variety of corporate clients. The firm’s practice areas include litigation and appeals, business and corporate law, estate planning and probate, real estate, insurance defense, bankruptcy/foreclosure, construction and debtor-creditor law.
